Justice Knight August 6 19

Season 1 Episode 1

The Trial of Justice Knight

Justice Knight sits in the defendant's side of the courtroom and King Arcturus sits in the plaintiff's side of the court room. The judge enters and he looks over the case papers. The judge said, "This is the case of Arcturus v. Justice Knight and the court is now in session. King Arcturus, tell us your side of this case." King Arcturus stands up and he said, "I will your honor. You see..." King Arcturus is standing over a large courtyard filled with people and people party and celebrate a birthday. Banners fly over the courtyard saying, "Happy Birthday King Arcturus." Arcturus is with his butler and he said, "Isn't this wonderful? I cannot do any work today and just sit here while everyone else works for me." The butler said, "That is how it is everyday." Arcturus said, "Go back to work." The butler leaves the scene and King Arcturus' father, Bootes enters the scene. Bootes said, "Arcturus, you haven't changed since the day you were made king. It is all because of those triangle eyes of yours." Arcturus said, "These triangle eyes make it that I cannot fully see around edges. The only thing that is great about them is that they made me king of this beautiful kingdom of Azureis." Bootes said, "Yeah, the people that wrote that crap were just a bunch of crackpots that don't know how to write a great story." Arcturus said, "You are just jealous that I am king and you are still just a lowly peasant. Get back to work at scrubbing my cars." Bootes walks away mumbling inaudible speech. Arcturus said, "Justice Knight is sure to crash this party for sure." Arcturus takes out a special pair of binoculars and he pans around the courtyard.

Bootes is in the garage scrubbing cars and he falls back and hits a thing that is covered with a drape. The drape falls off and it is Justice Knight. Bootes looks at Justice Knight and he said, "Justice Knight? What are you doing here?" Justice Knight said, "I know that no-good King Arcturus is up to something and I must stop him." Bootes said, "Have you lost your mind? King Arcturus is going to banish you for this?" Justice Knight said, "I have been lawfully made the protector of this kingdom and it is my duty to protect it at all costs. Even the King cannot relieve me of that power." Justice Knight leaves the garage.

King Arcturus still looks at the courtyard and he sees tents get destroyed and tables get knocked over. A tent gets cut up by Justice Knight's ruby red sword. People scream and they run away in fear. Justice Knight goes to Arcturus and he said, "You are just using these people so you can leech off their benefits. The prophecy is wrong and you know it and I must act." Arcturus said, "So certain are you?" Arcturus reaches into his back and he pulls out his sapphire sword and he duels with Justice Knight. Justice Knight and King Arcturus clash their swords in a fast duel. They clang and lock their swords together. Justice Knight said, "This ends here." Arcturus said, "You may think that." Justice Knight moves to Arcturus' blind spot and he slashes the sword out of Arcturus' hand. Arcturus said, "Curses triangle blind spot." Arcturus jumps into the air and he lands on the balcony of his castle and he takes out a large scepter that has a cats-eye marble on the tip of it. King Arcturus said, "You will meet your doom for trespassing on my private property and for ruining my birthday." Arcturus fires yellow plasma beams from his scepter and Justice Knight rolls and dodges one of them. Arcturus sends out another plasma beam and Justice Knight spins his sword around and he blocks the beam. Arcturus fires another plasma beam and it hits the ground right beside Justice Knight. Justice Knight goes flying and he lands on the opposite side of the courtyard where it is a desert wasteland. Justice Knight dusts himself off and a dragon that Arcturus is riding on zips in after Justice Knight. Justice Knight runs away from the dragon and the dragon breathes fire at Justice Knight. Justice Knight blocks all the fire with his sword. Justice Knight jumps in the air and he lands on the dragon. Arcturus smacks Justice Knight in the face and Justice Knight drops his sword and it lands in the desert. Justice Knight and Arcturus fight each other with their bare hands and a fight cloud is formed.

They jump kick into each other and they almost fall off the dragon. The dragon jerks and Justice Knight and Arcturus are left hanging onto the edge of the dragon. Justice Knight and Arcturus still fight each other while they are hanging onto the side of the dragon. Justice Knight and Arcturus knock each other off the dragon and they fall from a great height and they smash in the sand of the desert. Justice Knight lands several meters away from his sword and Arcturus lands next to the sword. Arcturus said, “Now I have your sword!” Arcturus tries to lift Justice Knight's sword out of the ground and it does not budge at all. Arcturus said, “What kind of trickery is this?” Arcturus places both of his feet on the sword and he tries to pry it out of the ground and it still does not budge. Justice Knight runs to the sword and he pulls it out of the ground and he aims it at Arcturus. Justice Knight said, “Only he who is worthy of lifting the ruby sword of justice can lift the sword.” Arcturus said, “Great. More prophecy crap.” Justice Knight said, “'Prophecy crap' is the reason why you are king. You are making yourself sound more and more like a hypocrite.” Arcturus calls his dragon to be sent at Justice Knight. Justice Knight uses his sword to block the dragon's attacks and Justice Knight cuts the sharp claws of the dragon off. The dragon looks at his hands and he sees he was just de-clawed. The dragon said, “He de-clawed me. He actually de-clawed me. There is no way any amount of gems is worth this.” The dragon zips away. Arcturus said, “You... You have left us stranded out in the middle of the desert. The dragon was our only way to get back to my castle.” Justice Knight said, “So certain are you again.” Justice Knight zips away and he leaves Arcturus out in the middle of the desert where Arcturus has to live off the land and get back to his castle where he has a beard and his face is covered in sunburns.

The judge said, “Is that your story?” Arcturus said, “It sure is and I still have nightmares about it to this day. I usually call them, Knightmares because they involve a scary guy that does not deserve to be a knight.” The judge said, “Now we will hear the defendant's side of the story.” Justice Knight stands up and he said, “There were a lot of inaccuracies in the last story. This is what really happened...”

Justice Knight gets a pamphlet in the mail advertizing for King Arcturus' birthday bash at his courtroom. The flier reads, “All Welcome.” Justice Knight said, “'All Welcome?'” Justice Knight shows up at the birthday party and people are just standing around while lame music plays and they are being served specialty gruel and onion juice to drink. Justice Knight said, “This party really does suck.” Bootes spots Justice Knight and he said, “Justice Knight!” Justice Knight walks up to Bootes and Bootes said, “You won't believe it. My son has lost his mind again. I thought he was pretty insane before but this is just over the top. He found a marble that looks like this...” Bootes shows a photo of the marble to Justice Knight. Bootes said, “He plans on using it to make all of us mindlessly serve all the things he asks for. Why do you think so many people would want to stay at a lame party like this? There are far better things to be doing right now in Azureis.” Justice Knight said, “I am going to have a word with this, Arcturus.”

Justice Knight confronts Arcturus and Arcturus said, “Justice Knight. What a pleasant surprise." Justice Knight said, "I know what you are doing. That marble on your scepter is a universe and you are using its power to subjugate the people of the kingdom. You are also harming a lot of people and jobs and industries that exist in that marble of yours. It is technically not yours. It is a universe and it belongs in the Ultraverse." Arcturus said, "That is the biggest bunch of baloney I have ever heard. Guards, take this man to the brig and make sure he never again sees the light of day." Strong guards show up and they use physical force against Justice Knight. Justice Knight fights off the guards and there is one guard left that is overly strong. Justice Knight takes out his sword and he drops it on the strong man and he gets crushed into the floor. Justice Knight takes back his sword. Arcturus said, "That's it!" Arcturus activates his scepter and he fires beams at Justice Knight. Justice Knight dodges one of the beams and instead it hits one of his guards that were knocked down on the floor. The guard turns to stone. Justice Knight said, "You really are insane and now I finally have proof of that."

Justice Knight runs out of the castle and into the party and he said, "Run everybody! Justice Knight has a magic orb that turns us all to stone!" People panic and they try to run out of the courtyard. The courtyard is so complex that it is very hard to get out and people are having trouble getting out. Arcturus enters the courtyard with the scepter with the marble orb and he turns some people into stone. People see this and they panic even more. Bootes sees this and he goes to Justice Knight and he gets on his knees and said, "Justice Knight! You have to do something! Save me!" Justice Knight grabs a bunch of people and Justice Knight said, "Arcturus is your son. You must know him very well. You can talk him out of this." Justice Knight jumps out of the courtyard with all the people in his clutches. Justice Knight takes the people out of the courtyard and back into the streets of Azureis. Bootes ends up going face to face against Arcturus. Arcturus said, "Father. Why have you not scrubbed my car yet?" Bootes said, "It is not my job to scrub your cars. You barely do any work at all. Why don't you scrub them yourself?" Arcturus said, "That's it!" Arcturus uses the orb on his scepter and he turns Bootes into stone. Justice Knight saves a lot of people and he looks into the courtyard and he sees everyone else has been turned to stone. Justice Knight tries to leave the scene and Arcturus comes after him with his dragon and Justice Knight is brought on the dragon where Arcturus and Justice Knight fight each other over the desert.

They lose control and they fall off the dragon and they land in the desert and Arcturus tries to lift Justice Knight's sword and it does not budge and Justice Knight lifts it up perfectly and he slashes the claws of Arcturus' dragon and Justice Knight aims his sword at Arcturus. Arcturus said, "You... You have left us stranded out in the middle of the desert. The dragon was our only way to get back to my castle." Justice Knight said, "So you think." Justice Knight picks up Arcturus and he dashes back to the castle. Justice Knight sees that Arcturus still has his scepter on him. Justice Knight grabs the scepter and he breaks the orb off it and he said, "It is my job to make sure any dangerous weapon of mass destruction is kept out of the hands of madmen. Even madmen like you." Justice Knight leaves Arcturus at the castle and Justice Knight leaves the scene.

The judge looks over Justice Knight's story and he said, "So what you are telling me is that King Arcturus is just a big liar and you are always right." Justice Knight's lawyer stands up and she said, "He is telling the truth." The judge said, "What kind of proof do you have for this?" The lawyer said, "It is great that you ask because we have proof." The lawyer goes through a crate and she takes out the orb that was on Arcturus' scepter. She shows it to the judge. The judge said, “Is this the orb that you said Arcturus used to turn all those people into stone with?” Justice Knight said, “That's correct.” The judge looks at the marble and he said, “You expect me to believe that a whole universe of people and things exists within this small orb?” Justice Knight said, “It is true. They belong in a place called the Ultraverse.” The judge said, “Where is this, Ultraverse?” Justice Knight said, “It can only be accessed through people that open portals in the Ultraverse. The Ultraverse is a level of existence greater than ours.” The Judge said, “That sounds like a bunch of crap that some crackpots that don't know how to write a great story came up with. There is no way this could be used to turn people into stone.” Justice Knight said, “It has to be used with the proper equipment. I did have to break Arcturus' scepter to get it out. I did it for a good cause...” The judge said, “No you did not do it for a good cause. Now you cannot prove that this was actually used to turn people into stone with.” Justice Knight's lawyer stands up and she said, “Actually, we do have proof.” The judge said, “Bring it in then.” The lawyer opens the door and people carrying stone people enter the room. They place the stone people down in the courtroom and the judge has a look at them. He sees that one of them is Bootes. The judge said, “Is that Bootes?” Justice Knight said, “It is your honor.” The judge said, “How do I know that is not just a sculpture of him that looks very accurate to the real thing?” Justice Knight hands a cell phone to the judge. Justice Knight said, “Give Bootes' house a call and see if you get anything.” The judge calls the house of Bootes and no one answers. The judge said, “This still does not prove anything. I can order for our police to search the city and look for him but that is all we could do.”

Justice Knight sits down with his lawyer. Justice Knight said, “I don't know what more it will take to get that judge to buy our story. I swear it is true.” The lawyer said, “It would take a miracle at this point to defend you against Arcturus' crazy convictions. The judge takes his seat again and he said, “The police have searched the entire kingdom and they did not find any traces of Bootes anywhere. I am afraid this does not prove or disprove anything. The final verdict is...” Someone in the audience is watching the trial and he gets up and he said, “Is that my Aunt Bertha?” The judge said, “What?” The viewer gets up and he goes up to the stone statue that looks like his aunt Bertha. He looks at it and he said, “This is my aunt Bertha. She was supposed to go to Arcturus' birthday and she never came back after that. This must be why.” Another observer in the crowd said, “I think that looks like my Uncle Shavik.” Another viewer said, “That looks like Donna, my ex-girlfriend.” People from the back of the courtroom crowd around the stone statues and they look at them. The judge said, “Are all of you really sure that these are your family?” They all shake their heads yes and one of them said, “This one even smells like my aunt Bertha and nothing else smells like her.” The judge said, “Maybe Justice Knight's story was true. What happened to all those people Justice Knight rescued at the party?” Justice Knight said, “Call the local hospital and ask them.” The judge takes the same cell phone from earlier and he calls the hospital. All the people that Justice Knight rescued at the party are lying in beds petrified in terror. The judge said, “Well... What can I say...” The wall of the courtroom explodes and Arcturus' dragon enters the courtroom. Arcturus said, “Yuio! I told you not to bother me while I am in court.” Yuio said, “I was just dying to see you again since it has been hours.” Arcturus said, “No it has only been twenty minutes.” Yuio said, “It might as well have been hours. Did you get your scepter fixed yet? I would love to see you turn more people into stone like you did at that party.” Arcturus is freaking out and he said, “Shut up Yuio! You are ruining my case.” Yuio said, “C'mon. Surely I am more important than this case.” Arcturus said, “You are fired. I can't believe I lost my other dragon Phyro in a bet.” Yuio said, “This sucks. Now how will I get more gems and diamonds?”

People in the courtroom freak and they dash out of the place. Justice Knight's lawyer is panicking. Justice Knight said, “Yuio. Would you like a different job?” Yuio said, “What kind of job is that?” Justice Knight said, “My goal is to prove to Azureis and the world that Arcturus is not suitable of being the king of Azureis and that the prophecy is wrong. I have plenty of diamonds and gems. You will never starve again and you get to travel through time with me.” Yuio said, “That sounds like a better deal than anything Arcturus has ever given me.” Justice Knight said, “Then it is settled.”

Justice Knight, Yuio, and his lawyer are at Justice Knight's lair. Computers and electronic equipment is sprawled around the place and there is a holographic map of the world in the center of the lair. Justice Knight said, “Arcturus did not win his case against me nor did I win my counter claim against him. There is only one way to get Arcturus to no longer be king. We need to travel through time and prove that Arcturus abuses his time traveling powers in other parts of the world too. Look at these photos I found.” Justice Knight shows everyone photos of Arcturus appearing in various points in earth history. Justice Knight said, “We need to figure out where and when Arcturus has appeared out in the world and stop him from altering history. This is a dangerous and complex job so I cannot have you be with me in all periods in history. I will need your help at some points in this quest. I will also look for a way to turn the stone people back into the people they were before. We have a test subject for that.” They all look at the stone statue of Bootes.
